C.T.C. OPENING CRUISS. :Under the anapicies of the Corinthian Xacht Club the opening cruise of the season book, place at Laichiltok on Sunday, the weather being simply perfect. There was a very large attendance and the several events were all keenly contested so that the racing was thoroughly enjoyed. The two opening races were from the club-house at Wanchai, the first being open to all classes and all the yachts took part, handicaps being allotted according to class. For the greater, part of the distance the breeze was very light, but it freshened as the boats passed Stonecutters' Island with the result that they finished in a cluster. The winners in the various clasees were :-HANDICAP CLASS. Mackay and Coombs' Corringe... Time 1 hr. 47 min. 02 secs. "GARL" ONE DESIGN CLASS. J.R. Forbes Dorothy. Time 1 hr. 52

min. 48 secs. "HAYWARD-HATE" CLASS. G. H. Saunders' Tremms. Time 1 hr. 52 min. 18 secs. The handicapping times being allotted it was found that the prizes had been won

J. P. Forbes ...... Dorothy 1 G. H. Saunders ..... Tremona 2 A. A. H. Milrey ...... Sirius 3 A motor boat race also started from the elub-house over the five mile course, and resulted in an easy win for Corinthian.

D. McCrae ... Corinthian 1 W. W. Pearse ... Jenn On the arrival of all the boats at Laichikok tiffin was served, after which a start was made with the remaining events.

MOTOE BOAT RACE. W. W. Pearse ... Jean In this race the prize was awarded Jean as being the only, boot to cover the specified course.

LADIES HAYWARD-HAYER RACE. D. Gow (Mrs Duncan) ... White Rose 2

NON-BOATING MEMBERS RACE. GAZL CLASS. Bodgers and Witchell (Mr Gregory) ...

Wood and Leask (Lieut, Shedden) LADIES HANDICAT CLASS, /

Mackay and Coombs (Mrs Bond) ... A. P. Storrie (Mrs Milroy)... Dalhousie 2 MOTOR BOAT RACE.

-D. McRae ... Corinthian 1 W. W. Pearse ... Joan 2 Owing to Corinthian going on the rocks and Jean losing her chance through render. ing sesistance, this race had to be resalled. LADIES GARL CLASS RACE. J. A. Dove (Mrs Doughton) ... Bestrice

Rodgers and Witchell (Mrs Pepper) THAM RACE. Tale was one of the most spectacular races of the day, no fewer than 16 hosts taking part. Ryentually all, with the orception of Dalhousie, got away in a bunch. The finish was quite in keeping with the start, the Commodore's yacht besting Dalhouse by a length and a half after a clever bit of facking from the leaward of the outer end of the finishing line. The Commodore's The mon by a very marrow margin. The aret four bosts past the post state :--Commeders Clarke L. P. Storie Dalhoume Bond and Thornbill

BUTES . NAVAL YARD. Played on the Naval Ground on Saturday. The Yarders created quite a surprise by the resistance they gave to the Buffs. In fact, they led at the interval by a goal to ail, but were unable to stand the pace in the second moiety, when the soldiers PRICES ......$3; $2 and rapidly piled up four goals. Result :

Buffs, 4; Naval Yard, 1. R.E. v. Kowloon. The result of this match was also something in the nature of a surprise, for the Engineers bean a Kowloon full eleven by no less than 6 goals to one. Even this solitary point to Kowloon was secured as the result of Beardmore putting through his own goal. At the interval the military CHINKIANG: Messrs Gearing & could only claim a 2-1 lead, but thence onward they took the game in hand and put on four more. The new men of the Engineers are truly getting into form.

Portugal, France, Holland and Great Britain had been carried to the highest pinnacles of their greatness on the crest of an Asian wave. The December 2. shifting of the centre of gravity from the West to the East, if in itself remarkable, was, as a matter of fact, neither inexplicable nor unnatural The very vastness and variety of the countries of the East had endowed the continent of Asia with an infinite and inexhaustible charm. Philosopher, historian, traveller, politician, artist, an diplomatist would find within boundaries of the Asian continent ample scope for the exercise of their activities. In the world of thought metaphysics the highest been born in the minds of men of the devout and contemplative announcing that the R.M.S. Empress o S. MOUTRIE & Co., Ld. East. Her contributions to literature had provided world monuments of the varied genius of her people. The chron- expected to reach Yokohama at 6 a.m. or icles of her kings provided some of the most enchanting pages of world history. In the fascinating field of archæology the sand-strewn wastes of Assyria and "Has not the call of the East some special significance for us as members of the British race?" asked Lord Rox LDSHLY, in concluding his address. think it has. For us, surely, there can no more engrossing chapter in history than that which unfolds before the reader the dazzling panorama of events by which the irresistible force of a stern and virile character involuntarily but inevitably raised up the magnificent fabric of Western sovereignty upon the dying embers of the gorgeous Empires of the East. 'The English did not calculate the conquest of the Indies,' writes EMERSON: it fell to their character.' No desire for conquest governed the policy Great Britain in her dealings with the Eastern world. Rather were her statesmen actuated by an extreme distaste 2.30 p.m.—Auction of Jewellery, &c. at acquiring further territories with Mr Geo. P. Mr VALENTINE CHIROL, speaking at the annual dinner of the China Association in London, expressed the opinion, we observe, that the Legislators of England should answer the call of the Fast more readily than they do. He thought it would be an excellent idea if Treasury could send them on trips to the East. Perhaps it would if they were all men possessing truly receptive or reflective faculties and were able appreciate facts and weigh opinions at their proper value. Whatever one may think of the worldly wisdom of Mr Arthur Ponsonby, M.P. says the Manchester Dispatch, his disinterested devotion to principle commands admiration. It will be recalled that he was private secretary to, and a great favourite with, the late Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, and when he gave up that post it was well understood that he was destined for some, high appointment. It was expected that he was likely to succeed Sir Arthur Godley as permanent Under-Secratary at "the India Office, who got the appointment after a period of service as Mr Gladstone's private secretary. The vacancy then foreshadowed has arison and has been filled, but Mr Arthur Ponsonby is not the selected new tenant of the post. His opposition to the Government and his attack on the King in connection with the Windsor garden party rendered Mr Ponsonby impossible for the preferment which might have been his, and he remains a private member, a position probably more congenial to one of his independent spirit.

the jungle-covered cities had yielded

> According to Manila papers charges cruelty in the transportation of cattle into the port of Manile have been filed by the proceduling attorney against Captain Haraldsen of the steamship Nord, recently strived from Phom Penh, Cochin China. It appears that during the last trip of the ship to Manila the batches were bettened down tightly to prevent the entry water. They remained in that condition two days and during that time the cattle in the holds of the ship were without fresh alt. food or water. Over 200 of them were anticoated in the hold and many others where killed or maimed in their attempts to ride the storm. The inspectors who examined the ship on arrival maintain that the ship was not provided with the proper facilities to carry cettle.

HARBEN TRADE.

No accurate data on the trade returns for Harbin are yet obtainable, says the Mouse Niche Nicks. The Chamber of Commerce however, estimates the situates the volume of the year ending 31 March, 1909, to have reached in round numbers about 28,000,000 roubles. Of this figure, agricultural produce took up about 12,000,000 roubles, of which more than a half went for Sugar. The flour mills in and about Harbin can turn out annually 4,500,000 pouds of flour valued at 6,500,000 roubles and requiring for material not less than 6,000,000 ponds of wheat. The rest is divided among the various cereals exported. Cattle take the front rank of Mongolian products. About 40,000 head of them are slaughtered yearly at Harbin and supply the territory along the Amur and also Vladivestock. Of fabrica of all kinds that find their way to Harbin one-third of them are of Russian manufacture. Japanese goods come in as a close second. German, British and American imports follow in order, but fall far below in importance. Then speaking of the foodstuffs imported into Manchuria, Russian | 755 Sugar leads the list by long odds, rolling up an annual figure from 120,000 to 125,000 pouds valued at 250,000 roubles. Of this, 90,000 pouds is marketed about Harbin. There is no doubt that boots thrive splendidly about Harbin and several Beet Sugar Factories are now in course of construction under Russo-Chinese management.

The suggestion that Lady Cardigan, encouraged by the success of her volume of reminiscences, may publish another book of recollections, is calculated to strike terror ento the breast of society. That her outspoken stories have caused embarrassment doubted, for this very candid critic of the manners of her "set" has made no attempt to diaguise the identity of the individuals she places in her pillory. Lady Cardigan, though she is now in her 84th year, is an old lady who retains her activity to an extraordinary degree. Apart from her house in a street off Park-lane she has small estates in the Midlands and in Yorkshire, which she visits occasionally. She still rides at times, and the fascination which yachting and other outdoor recreations have always possessed for her possibly explains her wonderful vitality...
